Public (General-C) Department

G.O.Ms.No.3376, dated 13th November'47.

READ:-
(1) G.O.No.1069, Public(General-C) dt. 24-April 1945.
(2) Press Communique No.49, Public (I.&.P) dated 6th November 1947.

ORDER:

In the G.O.quoted above the Government ordered for the reason stated therein that the name W.A.R.P.C. which was the original name of the I.W.C.C. be changed as the "Indian Women's Civic Corps". The Government have in the Press Communique quoted above clarified the aims and activities of the Corps and the lines on which the organisation is to develop in the near future. They now consider, that in view of the work the Corps is now doing and the new channels of social welfare for women that it may take up, the present name of the organisation, i.e. the Indian Woman's Civic Corps is not appropriate and they accordingly direct that the name of the organisation and its members etc. be re-designated as follows. The new names will come into force forthwith.

PRESENT NAME.	NAME PROPOSED.
1.	2.
1. Indian Women's Civic Corps.	Department of Women's Welfare
2. Commandant.	Women's Welfare Officer.
3. Area Organisers and Assistant Commandant.	Assistant Women's Welfare Officers.
4. Staff Officers in the city and Instructresses in the mufassal.	Women's Welfare Organisers.
5. Provincial Executive Committee.	Provincial Advisory Committee.
6. Local Executive Committee.	Local Advisory Committee.
7. I.W.C.C. Journal	Women's Welfare Journal.(with suitable similar title in Provincial languages).

All Collectors, Executive authorities of Municipalities and Health Officers are requested to give all possible help to the workers both voluntary and paid, on the Department of Women's Welfare, so that its work in the various centres of the Province may be intensified in order to render the maximum benefit to the public.
